Write Your Book by-the-Numbers: Just Fill in the Blanks

You have heard of paint-by-numbers. It means filling in the blanks according to a pre-determined plan. PAINT-by-numbers is a step-by-step outline that makes you look like a master. This presentation shows you how to WRITE-by-numbers.

Writing books is hard work—unless you have a plan. Without a roadmap, it is easy to get lost. Without noticeable progress, it is easy to become discouraged and lose momentum.

Dan Poynter will supply you with a 33-page book-writing template. All you have to do is to insert the template into a 3-ring binder and then fill in the blanks. Each page of the frontmatter, chapter headings and backmatter tells you what to put on that page—your book is structured and ready for your material.

Writing-by-numbers will accelerate your book project by helping you visualize the entire project and by guiding you through the writing process.

P-47. Multimedia with handouts and resources, 60 minutes.
